

Recent Growth of Religious Intolerance in Indonesia

Kamaruzzaman Bustamam-Ahmad

Aims

To explain the current situation on RI (Religious Intolerance) in RI (Republic of Indonesia).

To introduce a conceptual framework:

- a. Why religious is important in our era?
- b. Is there the problem of RI due to “religious teaching” or “hijacked society”?

To put in concept of some possible agendas in Fostering Peace in SEA

Pew Research Center (2014)

- Mob violence also escalated in Indonesia, as Muslim groups targeted houses of worship, religious schools and homes of other Muslims they deemed “unorthodox,” ... In August 2012, for instance, some 500 Sunni hard-liners attacked a Shia community in the city of Sampang, killing two people, burning dozens of homes and displacing hundreds of people

RI in RI

- The target of violation (which always targets the minority such as the Ahmadiyya, the Christians, and indigenous faiths);
- Its methods (discrimination, physical violence, murder, criminalization, forced relocation, and systematic stigmatization);
- The modus operandi (generally, the violation are made legal by discriminatory state legislations, which are a direct attack towards religious freedom)
